Summer Picnic

"It's a nice day for a picnic," said Mr Fox. "Let's go to the river and have a picnic," said Mrs Fox. So Mr Fox took the picnic basket and the family went to the river. But there were no trees there and it was very hot.

"Let's go to the woods and have a picnic there," said Bobby. The family came to the woods. There were big trees, it was not hot, but there were no flowers. "I don't like this place," said Ann. "There aren't any flowers here."

When at last they found a place with all those things, Mrs Fox cried, "Oh, but here there's no water. I'm sure we can find a better place for a picnic."

When it was lunchtime, everyone was very hungry. Ann and Bob cried, "Please hurry up and choose a picnic place!" "Yes, do please," Mr Fox said. "The basket is so heavy."

"All right," agreed Mrs Fox. "Let us just go round the next turn — and there we'll eat."

So they went round the turn and came into their own back yard near their own house. Mr Fox quickly put down his basket. "It's the best place for a picnic," he smiled. "Chairs and a table, a swimming pool and a beautiful flower garden!" Mrs Fox, Ann and Bobby agreed, "Oh, yes, it's the best place for a picnic!"
